

CYTA's comments on the European Commission Document regarding the selection and authorisation of Systems Providing Mobile Satellite Services.

CYTA generally agrees with the overall approach proposed for the coordination, selection and authorization of systems providing Mobile Satellite Services. Concerning the spectrum used, our position is that the utilization of the chosen spectrum must not cause harmful interference to the operation of existing mobile service providers.